Approval of Minutes

Elsa McKinney requested comments on the minutes from the March 9th meeting.

Bob Wagner made a motion to accept the minutes.

Melissa Gardner provided a second to the motion.

Motion passed.

Reports

Treasurer's Report

No report.

Education Report

No Report.

Worship Report

Mary Hafner asked Pastor to continue to email members in his weekly "e-news" the sign up list as a reminder.

Pastor's Report

- Lenten Services will be used to start the self study/ULC plan.
- Summer will be used to broaden information gathering for the ULC plan to include all communicants.
- Input for the plan will be continued in small and large group settings.
- Attendance is steady. Ushers need to be reminded to count attendance.

Property Report

Rick Frazier and Pastor will meet this week to discuss furnishing for downstairs; $5000 has been appropriated. Four students will reside downstairs in the fall. A repair list will be completed.

Outreach Report

Catherine Knickerbocker reported it was the college students scheduled to serve dinner for the Hope Community this Thursday night. (Please note anyone may attend.) Volunteers in attendance may always contribute to the "fund."

Holy Week Easter

Easter service is at 8:30 as opposed to the 8:00 time printed in the newspaper advertisement.

There is a signup sheet for Seder and Easter Breakfast; Pastor will email the signup sheet to all members.

District Concerns

Pastor will make sure all the credentials have been sent for Pastor and Katherine Banales to attend the District Meeting at Lake Mary on June 9th and 10th.

Pastor's Retirement

Pastor recommended inviting a Pastor from Michigan currently in a campus ministry for an informal meeting with ULC. The pastor and his family will be invited for a football game weekend to connect with ULC members. Ann Marie suggested inviting him to guest lecture.

Pastor also suggested his retirement be moved forward if necessary to accommodate any Pastor that may be called if it assisted ULC in a smoother transition.
